Numbering of the Journal

Because computer and library authorities prefer journal subscriptions to be based on the calendar year, and because the present numbering system of the Journal of the South African Institute of Mining and Metallurgy does not conform with the calendar year, it has been decided to change the numbering system of the Journal.

Therefore, the present volume of the Journal (Volume

79) will be extended to have 17 numbers, ending with number 17 in December 1979. Volume 80 will start with the January 1980 issue (number 1) and end with the December 1980 issue (number 12). Subsequent volumes will follow the same system.

The index to Volume 79 will be issued as a supplement to the March 1980 issue of the Journal.
