- A4.5 By-law A and sub-sections shall, mutatis mutandis, equally apply to a request for transfer by a member from one category of membership to another. Transfer
- A4.6 In the event of a candidate's application for membership being rejected, it shall not be incumbent upon the Council to give its reason for so doing. Unsuccessful candidates
- A4.7 The Council may, in exceptional circumstances only, exercise its discretion in waiving the requirements of clause A4.3 as regards the required signatures of Corporate members if a candidate is prevented from obtaining the specified number of signatories for his/her application, either by reason of his/her place of residence or for any other valid reason beyond his/her control. Exemption in respect of signatures
- A4.7.1 In such instances, the candidate must assist the Council by submitting the names of suitable persons who can vouch for his/her character, qualifications, and experience and with whom the Membership Committee may communicate.
- A4.8 A company that applies for election as a Company Affiliate shall apply on the prescribed application form, which requires details of the standing of the company and its association with the mining and metallurgical industries. The Council shall consider each application at the earliest opportunity and shall notify the company of its decision in writing. Company Affiliates
- A4.9 Notwithstanding clause A3.4, any person who attends an SAIMM conference, shall qualify for election as an Associate member if application is made at the conference and the application form is signed off by the respective Conference Convenor.
- A4.9.1 Membership granted in terms of clause A4.9 shall be free of charge until the end of the financial year in which the conference was held.

A5 MEMBERSHIP: LIST OF NOTICES

- | | | |
|------|---|--|
| A5.1 | A register of the names, qualification(s) and relevant contact details of each member shall be kept as the Council may direct, | Register of members |
| A5.2 | It is incumbent upon all members of the Institute to notify the Manager, in writing or electronically, of any changes of address or employer. If this is not done then the member shall be deemed to have waived service of any notices or copies of the Journal etc. and the onus of notification of non-service shall rest with the members. A notice in writing sent by registered letter to the address last registered with the Institute shall be deemed to have been duly served on the members. Any such non-service shall not exempt the members from the liability of all payments due by them to the Institute . | Members' addresses and serving of notices |
| A5.3 | A list of all Company Affiliates shall be published in each edition of the Institute's Journal. | List of Company Affiliates |

A6 FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

- | | | |
|--------|--|--|
| A6.1 | The Council shall decide membership subscriptions. A list of subscriptions shall be distributed to members and such list, as amended and circulated from time to time, will be published and maintained on the Institute's web site. | Membership subscriptions |
| A6.2 | With the exception of Student members transferring to Associate, any member who applies for a transfer to the next level of membership shall not be charged for the increase in membership fee at the time of transfer. No transfer fee will be levied. The applicable membership fee will then be invoiced in the new financial year. | Transfer fees |
| A6.3 | The first subscription shall, subject to Clause A4, be due on receipt by the candidate of the category of membership to which he/she has been elected. Such notice shall, subject to Clause A6.3.2, include advice of the amounts of the subscription(s) which must be paid before the election of the candidate can be confirmed. | Payment of fees and subscriptions |
| A6.3.1 | Payment of the amounts due must be made within one (1) month of the date of issue of the notice referred to in Clause A6.3. If payment is not made within the prescribed period, the application and election shall be deemed to have lapsed and the Council shall not reconsider any further application until at least six (6) months after the date by which the amounts due should have been paid. | |
| A6.3.2 | The Council may, on account of distance or other circumstances, extend the period of one (1) month prescribed in Clause A6.3.1. | |
| A6.4 | All subscriptions shall become due on the first day of July in each year and shall be payable in advance. | Subscription due date |
| A6.5 | Fellows and members who are at least sixty (60) years of age and who have bona fide retired from active business may retain membership at a reduced subscription (as provided for in Clause A6.1) provided they have been a member for at least ten (10) years. | Subscription: members over 60 |
| A6.6 | Should a member be elected on a date other than 1 July, his/her subscription shall be determined on a pro-rata basis for the remainder of the current financial year. | Subscription for part year |

- A6.6.1 When a member is elected during the last month of the financial year, his/her first subscription shall cover the period to the end of the succeeding year.
- A6.7 Should a member be transferred to another category after 1 July of the current financial year, he/she shall not be invoiced for the difference between the existing and future subscription. The new membership category fee shall be invoiced in the next financial year.
- A6.7.1 Notwithstanding Clause A6.7 above, a member transferring from the membership category of Student to Associate shall be invoiced in full or pro-rata based on his/her election date.
- A6.7.2 Should a member be transferred to the Retired category of membership, he/she shall not be entitled to a refund of subscriptions fees already paid for the current financial year. The appropriate membership fees shall be invoiced in the next financial year.
- A6.8 A member whose annual subscription is unpaid after 31 December of any year shall cease to be in good standing and shall not be entitled to receive the notices, publications, or awards of the Institute nor to exercise any of the rights and privileges of membership. Defaulters
- A6.8.1 The membership of a member whose annual subscription remains unpaid for one year may, by resolution of the Council, be suspended and his/her name be removed from the membership register. The notice of this suspension shall be published by the Institute in the Journal and/or on the Institute website with the number of this By-law being quoted as the reason for such suspension. Notice to this effect shall be sent to the member in writing by the Manager at his/her last registered address, three (3) months prior to the intended date of suspension.
- A6.8.2 Such suspension shall not relieve him/her from liability for the payment of any monies due by him/her, but any person whose membership has so ceased may, at the discretion of the Council and on payment of all outstanding fees due, be reinstated within one (1) year from the date of the resolution of the Council suspending him/her. Thereafter, he/she may be readmitted only on such conditions as the Council may decide. Reduction/remission of subscriptions
- A6.9 The Council may, in exceptional circumstances, reduce or remit the current or arrear subscriptions due by any member.

BY-LAW B

THE COUNCIL AND OFFICE BEARERS: DUTIES, NOMINATION, ELECTION AND REMOVAL

To be read in conjunction with the Constitution

Updated August 2018

B1 DUTIES AND MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL

- B1.1 Subject to 3.2.4 the Council shall meet as often as the business of the Institute requires, but not less than four times per year. Council meetings
- B1.2 At meetings of the Council, twelve (12) Corporate members of the Council present at the meeting shall constitute a quorum.
- B1.3 All matters shall be decided by vote of a simple majority of corporate members of the Council who are eligible to vote. Quorum
- B1.4 The President as chairperson of the Council meetings shall have a deliberative vote and, in the event of a tied ballot, a casting vote. The President or, in his/her absence, the President Elect, or, in the absence of both parties, a member of the Office Bearers Committee shall take the Chair at all meetings of the Council.
- B1.5 During the period between the Council meetings, urgent decisions may be taken in a manner prescribed for this purpose by the Council.
- B1.6 At the request of any three (3) Corporate members present, any item on the agenda may be postponed until the next meeting and then shall be decided by a simple majority of members present at the meeting who are eligible to vote. The notice calling for the subsequent meeting must clearly indicate that there is a subject on the agenda that requires discussion and a decision.
- B1.7 When the Council appoints Committees, such appointments and/or representatives may be made from members of the Institute or from such other persons as the Council may select to further the interests and work of the Institute. The President shall be, ex-officio, a member of all Committees. Appointment of committees and Representative
- B1.8 The President or, in his/her absence, the President Elect, may extend the privileges of the Institute to members of recognised professional bodies with comparable status who are visiting the Republic of South Africa. Visiting members

B2 NOMINATION, ELECTION, AND REMOVAL OF THE 14 ELECTED MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

- B2.1 The Manager shall invite members of the Council not later than the first day of May in each year to submit nominations for the fourteen (14) elected members of the Council. Such nominations shall be lodged with the Manager not less than 60 (sixty) calendar days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting (AGM). Nomination of Council members
- B2.1.1 Only Corporate members of the Institute are eligible to be nominated as one of the fourteen (14) elected members of the Council;

- B2.1.2 Each nomination for the fourteen (14) elected members of the Council must be proposed and seconded by at least two (2) Corporate members on the prescribed official nomination form; and
- B2.1.3 The members of the Council shall be provided with the nomination criteria which apply to the fourteen (14) elected members of the Council.
- B2.2 Upon receipt of the nominations, the Manager shall:
- B2.2.1 Check that each nominee complies with the approved nomination requirements;
- B2.2.2 Obtain a copy of an abridged CV per nominee, highlighting his/her contribution to the Institute; and
- B2.2.3 Notify each nominee and request his/her acceptance or otherwise of such nomination within ten (10) calendar days. Failure by the nominee to accept such nomination will make it null and void.
- B2.3 At least 30 (thirty) calendar days prior to the AGM, the Manager shall forward the respective ballot list showing the names, the qualifications, occupations and relevant contact details of eligible nominees to each of the voting members of the Council. The said ballot list will be accompanied by an abridged CV per nominee.
- B2.3.1 The prescribed voting process of voting for the said nominees shall take place over a period of two (2) weeks or longer but not later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Annual General Meeting; and
- B2.3.2 In the event of the number of votes being found to be equal for any two (2) or more nominees, all of whom cannot be declared elected; the Office Bearers Committee shall apply the procedure to be followed to finalise a tied ballot.
- B3 Should the list of nominees for 14 (fourteen) members to be elected to the Council not include the names of as many members as are required to fill the vacancies on the incoming Council, the outgoing Council shall, after scrutiny of the ballot list, nominate eligible Corporate members to complete the list and the members thus nominated shall be declared elected at the next AGM.
- B4 The Council shall have the right to request a member of the Council to forfeit his/her position or to resign if there is proof of unacceptable behaviour and/or that he/she is unable to perform his/her duties.
- B4.1 The Council shall discuss and agree on the process to remove a member of the Council in the absence of the affected member of the Council;
- B4.2 After consultation and engagement with the affected member of the Council a request shall be submitted for consideration and final resolution to the Council in the form of a letter setting out the reasons for the recommendation;
- B4.3 The Manager shall circulate the letter to the members of the Council for their consideration, comment and/or ratification;
- B4.4 Members of the Council shall be requested to approve or ratify this decision at the next Council meeting; and

 - Oversee the day-to-day business of the Institute.
- B5.1.2 During periods between the Council meetings, the Office Bearers Committee shall receive reports from the various Committees of the Institute on behalf of the Council and shall then report to the Council at the next meeting of the Council.
- B5.1.3. The Office Bearers Committee shall meet on a monthly basis, with the exception of August, when the Council is in recess, and December.

Duties of the Office Bearers

B5.2 NOMINATION, ELECTION, AND REMOVAL OF OFFICE BEARERS

- B5.2.1 The Council shall, each year at the May meeting of the Council, ratify all the positions within the Office Bearers Committee to ascertain that all Office Bearers are still willing, available, and able to fulfil the positions to which they have been elected.
- B5.2.2 The Council shall have the right to request an Office Bearer to forfeit his/her position or to resign if there is proof of unacceptable behaviour and/or that he/she is unable to perform his/her duties.
- B5.2.3 Office Bearers shall discuss and agree on the process to remove a member of the Office Bearers Committee in the absence of the affected Office Bearer.
- B5.2.4 After consultation and engagement with the affected Office Bearer, a request, in the form of a letter setting out the reasons for the recommendation, shall be submitted for consideration and finalisation to the Council.
- B5.2.5 The Manager shall circulate the letter for consideration, comment and/or ratification to all members of the Council.
- B5.2.6 Members of the Council shall be requested to approve or ratify this decision at the next meeting of the Council.
- B5.2.7 If any position within the Office Bearers Committee becomes vacant, the same process as detailed here-in before shall be implemented immediately following the resignation/forfeiture of an Office Bearer's position.

B6 NOMINATION, ELECTION, AND REMOVAL OF THE JUNIOR VICE PRESIDENT

- B6.1. The Manager shall timeously invite members of the Institute to submit nominations for the position of Junior Vice President for the next year. Such nominations shall be lodged with the Manager in writing three weeks prior to the May meeting of the Council.
- B6.2 The members of the Council shall be provided with a Council-approved list of criteria to be considered when submitting the names of eligible nominees.

- B6.3 The Manager shall compile a list of eligible nominees received from the members of the Council, for consideration by the Office Bearers Committee.
- B6.4 The Office Bearers Committee shall apply their minds to the list and agree on the preferred candidate intended to become the Junior Vice President for the next year, which shall be forwarded for consideration/ratification by the Council at its May meeting.
- B6.5 Once a Council member has been appointed as Junior Vice President, there will be an automatic annual progression from this position to Senior Vice President, President Elect, and President, subject to ratification by the Council.
- B6.6 Should the position of the Junior Vice President become vacant, the Council will fill the vacancy using the process described here-in before.
- B6.7 The Council shall have the right to request the Junior Vice President to forfeit his/her position or to resign if there is proof of unacceptable behaviour and/or that he/she is unable to perform his/her duties. The process used to remove a Junior Vice President is described in Clause B5.

B7 NOMINATION, ELECTION, AND REMOVAL OF THE HONORARY TREASURER

- B7.1 The Honorary Treasurer shall be a Corporate member of the Council, with a working knowledge of and personal interest in finances and accounting, and who is available and willing to take on the position.
- B7.2 Members of the Council shall nominate and ratify the appointment of the Honorary Treasurer on an annual basis at the May meeting of the Council.
- B7.3 Should the position of Honorary Treasurer be currently filled, the Manager shall timeously request the members of the Council to ratify the appointment of the current incumbent for the next year.
- B7.4 Should the position of Honorary Treasurer become vacant, the Manager shall circulate an invitation to members of the Council to submit nominations, in writing, for the position. Nominations must comply with the selection criteria, approved for this purpose by the Council.
- B7.5 The Manager shall validate the nominees and confirm which nominees are eligible for the position of Honorary Treasurer.
- B7.6 The list of eligible candidates shall be circulated to the Office Bearers Committee for its consideration and recommendation of the preferred candidate for consideration and finalisation by the Council at the May meeting.
- B7.7 The Council shall have the right to request the Honorary Treasurer to forfeit his/her position or to resign if there is proof of unacceptable behaviour and/or that he/she is unable to perform his/her duties. The process used to remove the Honorary Treasurer is described in Clause B5.

BY-LAW F

BRANCHES

Revised 21 July 2017

F1 CREATION AND OPERATION OF A BRANCH

F1.1 The Council may, at its discretion and upon receipt of a written request signed by twelve (12) Corporate members resident in a specific district, create a Branch of the Institute in such a district. The objectives of such a Branch shall be in accordance with Clause 1.5 of the Constitution. Creation of a Branch

F1.2 A Branch shall be termed [name] Branch of the Southern African Institute of Mining and Metallurgy with the name clearly defining the region of representation. A Branch shall remain a Branch of the Southern African Institute of Mining and Metallurgy. Branch Naming

F2 BRANCH ACTIVITIES

F2.1 The activities of a Branch shall be conducted in accordance with the Constitution and By-laws of the Institute. In case of any doubt as to the meaning or import of any portion of the Constitution and By-laws of the Institute or these Rules, the interpretation of the Council shall be binding upon members. Activities

F3 MEMBERSHIP OF A BRANCH

F3.1 The membership of any Branch shall consist of those members of all categories of the Institute who are resident in the area. All members shall be entitled to attend, speak and vote on matters related to their Branch. Persons who are not members of the Institute shall not be entitled to be members of a Branch. Membership

F3.2 A register of the names and addresses of all current Branch members shall be kept up to date. Membership Roll

F4 AUTHORITY OF A BRANCH

F4.1 A Branch shall not purport to act for the Institute in any matter, either directly or by correspondence, vis-à-vis Government Departments or similar bodies or any organisation, group or individual unless specifically authorised in writing by the Council to so act. Branch Authority

F4.2 Nothing in these Rules shall empower a Branch Committee to contract debts in the name of the INSITITUTE in any way.

F4.3 No member of a Branch shall have the authority to speak on behalf of the SAIMM or make press statements to media without the approval of the President, the Council, or Office Bearers.

F5 ELECTION OF BRANCH COMMITTEE

F5.1 The affairs of any Branch shall, subject to the control of the Council, be managed by a Committee constituted as follows: Branch Management

- Chairperson
- Vice-chairperson

- Branch Secretary
- Immediate Past Chairperson (if not available, then the next most senior member of the previous committee)
- three (3) to five (5) members
- The President of the Institute is, ex officio, a member of all Branch Committees.
- The Institute may direct the appointment of a Branch Treasurer

|--------|---|---|
| F5.2 | The Chairperson of the outgoing Committee shall call for nominations for members of the incoming Committee at a Branch Annual General Meeting. A member unable to attend the Annual General Meeting may be nominated by proxy in absentia provided he/she has given written confirmation of his/her willingness to stand. Each nominee requires a proposer and seconder whereupon voting for members can proceed by a show of hands. | Nominations for Incoming Committee |
| F5.2.1 | Only after the new Committee has been elected will the outgoing Chairperson hand the Chair over to the incoming Chairperson. | Branch Management |
| F5.2.2 | Should the nomination list for the members to be elected to the Committee not include the names of as many members as are required to fill the vacancies on the Committee, the new Committee shall be empowered to co-opt members to complete the list and the members nominated shall be declared elected at the Annual General Meeting. | Co-opted Members |
| F5.3 | The Chairperson and Vice-chairperson of a Branch shall hold office for a minimum of two (2) consecutive years and shall be elected by and from members of the retiring Branch Committee at the Branch Annual General Meeting held before the Annual General Meeting of the Institute of each year. | Branch Management |
| F5.3.1 | The Branch Committee shall have the power to fill any casual vacancy on the Committee. A member so elected shall hold office for the remaining portion of the current year. | Casual Vacancies |
| F5.3.2 | The elected Committee shall have the power to co-opt a further two (2) members. | Co-opted Members |

F6 BRANCH COMMITTEE MEETINGS

|--------|---|----------------------------------|
| F6.1 | The Committee shall meet as often as the business of the Branch requires. At meetings of the Committee four (4) members shall form a quorum and all matters shall be decided by a majority vote of all members of the Committee, the Chairperson having a deliberative vote and a casting vote. | Branch Committee Meetings |
| F6.1.1 | The Chair shall be taken by the Chairperson or, in his/her absence, the Vice-chairperson or, in the absence of both parties, a member of the Committee elected by the members present. | |

F7 MEETINGS OF A BRANCH

SAMCODES

Updated January 2020

- G1 All SAIMM members signing off on Competent Persons Reports are required to comply with the provisions, terms and principles of the SAMCODES (SAMREC, SAMVAL, SAMOG as well as the relevant Guideline documents) and, in particular, the requirements of a “Competent Person”, “Competent Valuator” and/or “Qualified Reserves Evaluator”;
- G2 Competent Person/Valuator status in terms of the SAMCODES reporting codes may be temporarily approved for members authoring public reports via a peer review process in accordance with the provisions of By-law G and Clause 2.13 of the Constitution
- G2.1 No member of the SAIMM or GSSA may sign a publicly released Competent Person Report without first successfully complying with the prescribed peer review process, unless he/she is a member of a statutory body or another recognised professional organisation (a list of accepted RPOs, as amended from time to time is located on www.samcodes.co.za).
- G2.2 Members of the SAIMM or GSSA (not registered with an applicable statutory body, or RPO), who wish to attain temporary Competent Person/Valuator status for the purpose of signing off on a specific public report lodged with the Johannesburg Stock Exchange, must successfully comply with the prescribed peer review process. The purpose of the process is to confirm that a person wishing to sign off as a Competent Person/Valuator satisfies all the requirements of a Competent Person/Valuator as defined in the SAMCODES, and that his/her professional status has been validated by his/her Professional Association.
- G2.3 This peer review clearance is to be obtained for each public, newly released Competent Person/Valuator report.
- G2.4 The peer review process will fall under the auspices of the SAMCODES Standards Committee (SSC), a joint SAIMM/GSSA entity. Its frame of reference will be the SAMCODES, as revised from time to time. The Chairperson of the SSC shall convene an appropriate subcommittee with the sole purpose of undertaking the Competent Person or Competent Valuator peer review. The purpose of the process is to confirm that a person purporting to be a Competent Person/Valuator satisfies all requirements of a Competent Person/Valuator as defined in the SAMCODES, and that his/her professional status has been validated by his/her Professional Association.
- G2.5 Appeals against a ruling of the Peer Review Process may be made to the SSC via the Council of the professional body to which the appellant belongs. The ruling of the Council of the respective body will be final.
- G2.6 While the peer review process may not be binding on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange, it represents a strong statement of support and comfort to the JSE.

 - H1.2.1.5 Contribute to debate on scientific and technological issues in their areas of competence in order to further public understanding and well-being.
 - H1.3 Discharge their duties to employers and/or clients effectively and competently, with fidelity and honesty as well as respect their employer's confidentiality.
 - H1.3.1 Members of SAIMM shall:
 - H1.3.1.1 Avoid all known or potential conflicts of interest at all times.
 - H1.3.1.2 Be impartial, when administering a contract, in its interpretation.

- H1.3.1.3 Not accept compensation from more than one party for services rendered on a contract unless disclosed to and agreed by all interested parties.
 - H1.3.1.4 Disclose to their employer or client, in writing any interest, financial or otherwise, which they may have in a company, organisation or person related to the work for which they have been employed.
 - H1.3.1.5 Disclose details of royalties or any other benefits which may accrue to them arising from the work for which they are responsible.
 - H1.3.1.6 Not solicit payment from suppliers of materials and equipment for specifying their particular products.
 - H1.3.1.7 Not solicit nor accept gratuities nor commissions from contractors, agents or other parties employed by their employer or client in connection with the work for which they are responsible unless authorised, in writing, by their employer or client
 - H1.3.1.8 Advise their employer or client where, as a result of their studies, they believe that a project is not viable.
 - H1.3.1.9 Not use nor disclose confidential information gained in the course of employment without the expressed, written permission of the employer or client
- H1.4 Only undertake work that they have been adequately trained for, have the necessary experience of, and are therefore competent to perform.
- H1.4.1 To this end the Institute requires members to:
- H1.4.1.1 Inform their employer or client and make recommendations for obtaining further advice if an assignment requires qualifications and experience beyond their field of competence.
 - H1.4.1.1 Refrain from describing themselves, nor permit themselves to be described as, nor act as consultants unless they are prepared to occupy a position of professional independence and design and supervise works and act as an unbiased independent adviser.
- H1.5 Strictly avoid advertising their professional services in a self-laudatory way or in a manner that would undermine the dignity of the Institute.
- H1.5.1 Members of SAIMM should avoid improper conduct for personal gain. Thus, members shall:
- H1.5.1.1 Only approach prospective employers and clients with due regard to their professional independence and this Code of Professional Conduct.
 - H1.5.1.2 Neither pay, nor offer, inducements for work.
 - H1.5.1.3 Promote the principle of engagement on merit.
 - H1.5.1.4 Not misrepresent their own nor their associates' qualifications, experience and previous responsibilities.

- H1.5.1.5 Exercise restraint when explaining their work.
 - H1.5.1.6 Not unfairly criticise the work of others.
 - H1.5.1.7 Give credit for professional work to those to whom it is due.
 - H1.5.1.8 Properly use circumspect advertising to announce their practice and availability.
- H1.6 Refrain from malicious or negligent conduct that would injure the professional reputation or business of others.
 - H6.1.1 The conduct of members of SAIMM shall never lead to the downfall of others.
- H1.7 Comply with the Constitution of the Institute and, where applicable, those of legislated Codes of Professional Conduct.
 - H1.7.1 Members of SAIMM shall:
 - H1.7.1.1 Inform themselves of the laws and regulations governing the minerals industry in Southern Africa.
 - H1.7.1.2 Practice their profession in accordance with this Code of Professional Conduct.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS COUNCIL (YPC)

Revised 15 November 2019

11 ESTABLISHMENT OF A YOUNG PROFESSIONALS COUNCIL (YPC)

11.1 The SAIMM Council ('the Council') acknowledges the valuable contribution that young professionals can make to the effectiveness of the Institute and considers their meaningful involvement in the operation of the Institute to be a valuable part of their development process. Young professionals are defined as those members of the Institute who are 35 years old and younger.

11.2 In accordance with clause 3.21 of the Constitution, the Council may frame By-laws, which must be consistent with the provisions of the Constitution for the conduct of the business and the management of the affairs of the Institute. The Council has in terms of this By-law constituted a Young Professionals Council. The objectives of the Young Professionals Council shall be in accordance with Clause 1.5 of the Constitution.

Establishment of a Young Professionals Council

11.3 The Young Professionals Council shall be termed "Young Professionals Council of the Southern African Institute of Mining and Metallurgy", hereinafter referred to as the "Young Professionals Council" and abbreviated as "YPC".

Name

12 AUTHORITY OF YOUNG PROFESSIONALS COUNCIL

12.1 The YPC may make rules governing its meetings and the business and conduct of its affairs, but it shall consult with the Council before doing so. Such rules may include the drawing up of a YPC Constitution for formal ratification by the Council.

Governance of the Young Professionals Council

12.2 The YPC shall be represented on the Council by the Chairperson and/or Vice Chairperson of the YPC who shall be co-opted by the Council.

Representation on Council

12.3 The YPC shall act on behalf of the Institute according to the mandate received by the Council and specifically by the activities and duties under Clause 3 of this By-Law

Authority

12.4 Nothing in these Rules shall empower the YPC to contract debts or any legal obligations in the name of the INSITITUTE in any way.

Debts

13 YPC ACTIVITIES AND DUTIES

13.1 The activities of the YPC shall be to develop and promote initiatives and industry awareness of young professionals within the defined age group and to provide an alternative perspective to the Council to consider in its decision-making. These activities will encompass but not be limited to the following focus areas:

Activities

13.1.1 Education – representing the interests of primarily pre-graduates in basic and higher education on matters of career guidance, academic development and life skills.

13.1.2 Career Guidance – representing the interests of primarily post-graduates in mining and metallurgy on matters of training, professional development and life skills.

13.1.3 Enterprise – Undertake industrious initiatives of some scope, complication and risk to serve the interests of young professionals.

13.2 The duties of the YPC shall be related to the issues and challenges facing young professionals as detailed in Clause 13.1.

Duties of
the YPC

13.3 No member of the YPC shall have the authority to speak on behalf of the SAIMM or make press statements to media without the approval of at least two Office Bearers acting on behalf of the Council.

14 YOUNG PROFESSIONALS COUNCIL

14.1 The affairs of the YPC shall, subject to the control of the Council, be managed by the YPC members constituted as follows:

14.4.1 Chairperson

14.4.2 Vice-Chairperson

14.4.3 Secretary

14.4.4 Treasurer

14.4.5 Immediate Past Chairperson (if eligible)

14.4.6 A minimum of thirteen (13) and a maximum of eighteen (18) members 35 years of age and younger

14.4.7 The Council shall have two representatives on the YPC to ensure continuity and that the interests of the Institute are maintained.

Constitution of
the YPC

14.2 Any member of the SAIMM, who is 35 years old and younger is eligible to serve on the YPC. The maximum age that a YPC member may reach before being required to step down from the YPC will be 35 years.

14.3 Members of the YPC shall be elected as provided for in this By-law and shall hold office until their successors have been elected. The manner of nomination and election of members of the Young Professionals Council shall be as set out in this By-law. Members of the YPC shall retire annually but shall be eligible for re-election.

14.4 The YPC may, to ensure adequate representation based on the identified needs, such as diversity, and the balance of the practice areas of mining and metallurgy, nominate, elect and co-opt by unanimous vote no more than four (4) additional members to the YPC. Such additional members shall have the privileges and responsibilities of elected YPC members and shall serve for that current session. The names of such co-opted members shall be announced at the next General Meeting of the Institute following their appointment.

15 ELECTIONS

15.1 Only candidates who are 34 years and younger at the time of the election, shall be considered for election to the YPC.

15.2 A notice calling for nominations for members of the YPC shall be distributed to all members who are 35 years old and younger not later than the first day of April in each year and all such nominations shall be lodged with the Manager not less than one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting.
